

IN THE HIGH COURT OF JUDICATURE AT PATNA

Cr.Misc. No.3183 of 2007

RAJNISH KUMAR

Versus

1. STATE OF BIHAR

2. KAMLESH SINGH

7 02.07.2009

This matter is pending before this court at the instance of the informant seeking cancellation of bail.

The merit of the case was decided under order dated 11.4.2007 and this court held that there is no merit in the application and the application seeking cancellation was rejected. However, this court granted 6 months time to the court below to conclude the trial. By yet another order dated 10.12.2008, considering the report of the learned trial court, time was extended and it was directed that within four months therefrom, the trial court shall finally dispose of the trial (Sessions Trial No. 977 of 2008) pending in the court of Addl. Sessions Judge, F.T.C.-V, Patna. It further appears that the trial court requested this court for extension of time for conclusion of the said trial. This court under order dated 29.4.2009 allowed the said prayer and extended the time as per request above.

Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the trial has not concluded and as many as three witnesses are yet to be examined on behalf of the prosecution.

Let a report be called for from the trial court so as to reach this court within two weeks which shall be placed before this Court on the administrative side for consideration. Office is directed to take steps immediately.

The application is consigned.
